

2023 ASPET Council Nomination Form

The ASPET Nominating Committee is seeking nominations for the 2023 Council election for the positions of President-Elect, Secretary/Treasurer-Elect, and Councilor. Any active ASPET member can nominate a colleague or submit a self-nomination for consideration in the upcoming election.

The new slate of ASPET candidates will be proposed by the ASPET Nominating Committee in late 2022. The 2023 election will occur in January 2023 and the newly elected leaders will take office in July 2023. Please read the ASPET Council position descriptions in preparation for nominating yourself or a colleague.

Nominees should possess the following attributes:

- ASPET is committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion in all aspects of the society, especially in leadership. To better represent the breadth of our membership, nominations are particularly encouraged from diverse racial and ethnic groups, women, and persons with disabilities. ASPET also seeks representation from a variety of sectors, scientific disciplines, and career paths.
- Demonstrated leadership, commitment, and involvement with ASPET and the pharmacology community
- Positive leadership attributes, emotional intelligence, and the ability to work collaboratively and be engaged in substantive debate and discussion when needed
- Visionary and strategic thinker
- Commitment to participate in four to six council meetings a year (two in-person meetings, and two – four conference calls).
- Must be an ASPET member in good standing

To submit a nomination for consideration by the ASPET Nominating Committee, please complete the form below. An NIH-style biosketch of the nominee is also required.

Email this completed form and biosketch to: Dave Jackson, ASPET Executive Officer, djackson@aspet.org. Please use "2023 ASPET Election Nomination" in the subject line of the email.
