

Guppy Tank: Translational Science Pitch Competition

A New Event, Modeled After ABC's Shark Tank, for Graduate and Postdoctoral Scientists at Experimental Biology 2020 in San Diego

Learn how to communicate the commercial value of your research and compete in front of a live audience.

Finalists will receive:

- Paid registration to EB and up to $500 in travel reimbursement
- One on one coaching from a seasoned biotech expert to prepare for the pitch
- Tour of the Johnson & Johnson Innovation's JLABS (San Diego), a premier life science incubator facility
- Post-event networking dinner with the Keynote Speaker (Dr. Sanjay Mistry, Head of JLABS, San Diego)
- A feature in ASPET's quarterly news magazine, The Pharmacologist
- An opportunity to win awards and prizes
